Was Mary Baker Eddy a Prophetess of God?

The question of Mary Baker Eddy's prophethood is a vital issue. If she is not a prophet sent from God, then her book Science and Health is a fraud and her false teachings must not only be ignored, but also exposed as a fraud. All Christian Scientists must be presented with God's standards for prophets, as set forth in the Bible.¹

If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account. But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death. — Deuteronomy 18:19-20

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

You have broken God's Holy Law, His Ten Commandments (Exodus, chapter 20). If you will be honest with yourself, you have lied, stolen, and coveted, and by doing all these things, you have dishonored your father and mother. And if you will be even more honest with yourself, you have broken all the others, too.

You've got a problem, my friend. And it's a serious problem, because the penalty for breaking God's Law is death, and not just physical death. The penalty is eternal death, separation from God in a place that you really don't want to go to. But there's some good news. In fact, it's great news. That eternal penalty has already been paid. God Himself paid it and paved the road for our salvation through Jesus Christ.

One Mistake Disqualifies Mary Baker Eddy

Mary Baker Eddy was wrong in her teachings. She was not and is not a prophetess of God. One mistake disqualifies her from being one of God's prophets. All the rest of her teaching is irrelevant. Even though Mary Baker Eddy claimed to speak for God, she did not. Mary Baker Eddy suffered under a delusion and has led millions of people astray with her false teaching.

Jesus Christ is the True Prophet

The Bible speaks of Jesus as God's greatest and final Prophet. His coming was predicted centuries in advance by hundreds of very specific prophecies in the Old Testament, and His work to save us from judgment is set forth in the New Testament. 6 who a prophet of God would be. In a word, a prophet can be identified by the accuracy of his or her predictions.

You may say to yourselves, 'How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the Lord?' If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the Lord does not take place or come true, that is a message the Lord has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him. —Deuteronomy 18:21-22

Although Eddy's pronouncements seldom involved future events, we note that a prophet can also be identified by the orthodoxy of his or her teachings. Mary Baker Eddy's teachings were hardly orthodox in nature. Here is just one of the "unorthodox" teachings of Mrs. Eddy: 3

One sacrifice, however great, is insufficient to pay the debt of sin. The atonement requires self-immolation on the sinner's part. That God's wrath should be vented upon His beloved Son, is divinely unnatural.²

The material blood of Jesus was no more efficacious to cleanse from sin when it was shed upon 'the accursed tree,' than when it was flowing in his veins as he went daily about his Father's business.³

Mary Baker Eddy's false doctrines are too numerous to mention here. Her doctrines contradict orthodox teachings and therefore her movement is neither "Christian" nor "Science". Use any Internet search engine (i.e., google.com) and search on "false doctrines of Mary Baker Eddy) to find many more examples. 4

God Confirmed His Prophets by Miracles

When God sent Moses to the Israelites, He not only gave him miracles to give him credibility, He also talked to Moses from the mountain, and thousands heard God speaking to him. Also,

- Miriam and Aaron heard the voice of God talking about Moses as a prophet.
- After John the Baptist baptized Jesus, everyone heard the voice of God saying that this is His beloved Son (Luke 3:22).
- On the Mount of Transfiguration, a voice came from heaven and spoke about Jesus. Peter, James and John were with Jesus and heard this voice, too. (Matthew 17:1-8)
